We're Back!

We had a great time on Year 4 school journey, the children (and the weather) were fantastic. We tried lots of new and exciting activities (raft-building, shelter-building, pond-dipping, archery), went on a night walk, ate delicious food and worked hard. Thank you very much to Fiona, Laura and Sean who gave their time to look after the children.

Eggtraordinary

Well done to all the pupils who entered our Easter competition. The entries were fabulous ...and the winners are

Assessment Month

During May, SATs tests for Year 6 pupils are completed (look out for a separate letter). Year 5 are assessed for secondary banding and Year 2 teachers complete assessment for the end of Key Stage One. Please support your child to do their best by ensuring they have early nights and a good breakfasts!
